

Revelation

Seals, Trumpets, Bowls

I have been convinced by my knowledge of the ways of Father Yah that each of these three events occurring in seven stages or steps are events we are in today. Three is the number of perfection, the perfect number, with seven being the number of completion. The seals being Yah's permission to do something, followed by the trumpet warning judgments, a warning of what is to come and the bowls are the outpouring of his decree or judgment in the fullest measure.

First, there is the scene in heaven and the opening of the seals, which is then followed by the results on the Earth. There is a period of time between the breaking of the seals, the sounding of the trumpets and the outpouring of the bowls. Yah is showing his mercy by giving Man a time to repent between each event. At first, I thought the three events ran concurrently, but as I read further, I found that it is in the breaking of the sixth seal that the angels are given the trumpets.

The purpose of these events is to save his people from annihilation and the virtual destruction of his precious Creation. Man's wickedness has brought him to judgment and Yah will not allow him to destroy the works of his hands. Man's actions are basically destructive because of his fallen nature. With his Fall in the Garden of Eden, everything man touches is destined to die. Death reigned from Adam unto the coming of Yahshua. Yahshua Messiyah came as the new sinless creation to bring us life and immortality, but Yah's efforts were ignored by the deceit of the fallen nature. But Yah found a remnant that believed him and saw his plan of salvation. However, because man as a whole refused his gift, judgment has come upon him.

These happenings follow the close of the Church age, which has ended some years ago. His dealings with mankind are no longer on a congregational level, as before. We now find him shut out of the church age for they no longer invited him in. This prompted him to call to anyone that would hear his voice to open the door of their heart saying, "I will come in and eat with him, and he with me." Thus his dealings with man became one on one and personal. The call, when heeded brings that person into a relationship with him that makes them kings and priests. Yah has been faithful to his true believers to show them things to come because a door has been opened in heaven and they have been caught up to see heavenly things.

The Throne, Yah's seat of Authority

There are several aspects to the scene in Heaven that are striking. What we see first is the Throne and its occupant, Father Yah. This door in Heaven is Yahshua Messiyah himself, who came to reconcile us back to the Father. Unless you are born of the Spirit, you cannot see Yah, though Yah is a spirit entity and has no features except his Shekinah glory. He is presented to mankind with three distinct faces, Creator, Savior and Spirit. Thus, when he formed man, he gave him features that represented his own. Born again, man is a triune being consisting of spirit, soul and body. The three steps of redemption from our fallen Adamic nature follow this pattern. When we are born of the spirit, we become a spirit being, as Yah is, but need to evolve. The soul that makes up the thoughts, emotions and personality is perfected next, and then comes the redemption of the body, body salvation or the manifestation of the son of Yah. They become a being like him, but inferior to him, like a son is to a father. Everything produces after its kind. That is a law in the Earth just as is the law of gravity.

Other Thrones

The twenty-four thrones here represent the seat of authority in the court of Heaven. Those that set upon them were called elders and were given their positions by Yah himself. Their specific identity is given in the form of tribes, as in the tribes of Israel, but I know they are those that have overcome in the Earth realm, both Old and New Testament saints. Twelve is the number of Yah's government as seen in the twelve sons of Israel, the New Jerusalem and the choosing of the disciples.

Before the throne were the seven spirits of Yah, torches of revelation to light man's way back to the Father. Seven is the number of completion.

The Four Creatures

It is not surprising to see four living creatures standing by the throne that has many faces. The Bible calls them Cherubim. The creatures were covered with eyes representing their ability to see spiritual things, and wings, meaning that they could live and move in Heavenly places. These creatures represent the aspects of the spirit man, four being the number signifying the whole or all. The primary face is human and can speak, but has also the likeness of a lion, an ox and an eagle. These faces represent the manifold attribute of the creature itself, Fearlessness, Strength, and Loftiness. It is their job to enlighten those that dwell in the Earth realm.

The primary events in Heaven are preceded by worship and giving praise to Yah. Then the Lamb appears, the only one who is worthy to open the seals. Yah came into the flesh realm to be the savior of the whole Earth. The lamb is identified in many scriptures as Yahshua the Messiyah, son of the living God. He is the one having the authority to exact judgment upon the Earth, or fallen nature of man, because he overcame for them, died for them and is their king.

Is it any wonder that the Lamb of God has come before the throne to set things in order that were messed up by the fall in the Garden of Eden, and preside over the judgment on the fallen nature that proceeded to usurp Heaven's authority, rebel and go their own way. That is the Eve syndrome, a way that ends in destruction and death. Since the meek will receive the Earth realm as an inheritance, that realm must be purged of any rebellious wicked ways. And the Lamb's judgments are both merciful and exact. He died to redeem the world and now he is setting that redemption into action, but woe to anyone that does not bow to his authority and judgment. Those that have that within them are not worthy to live in the New Heaven and Earth. Therefore, they will be destroyed with the sword of his mouth.

This seems awful from the standpoint of carnal man, but think about it. Those people with their sinful fallen nature would find living in a Holy world constant agony and shame. Again, we see the mercy of Yah, because it is better for them to cease to exist than to live in the fearful presence of his holiness. After all, they have made the choice themselves in not accepting the deliverance Yah has set out for them. “Those that have the son of Yah has life and those that have not the son have not life.” They are walking dead men already. Yah simply allows them to go to their inheritance.

When the church denominations developed, they made war with Yah’s spiritual people and conquered many of them, bringing them from spiritual to carnal, the fleshly as is their fallen nature, thus they became blood. The life of the flesh is in the blood. This was one of the first sermons that Yahshua preach. He told Nicodemus, “You must be born again.” He went on to say, “That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the spirit is spirit.”

In or around the 1970s, Yah began to call his people out of religious denominations and churches. I was a part of that. That was when the church age ended. Since that time I have experienced revelation knowledge. I did not see into the heavens as did John, but I was given revelations from Yah in my spirit. This writing is one of them. We will look at the scenes in heaven and what has occurred on Earth as we go along.

The Seals

The seals are Yah’s decree of judgment upon a world that has gone ballistic.. His kingdom is a universal one of Kingship and supreme authority. Since he is the architect of all created things, and there was nothing made without his doing It, therefore it falls his responsibility to keep everything under his authority and organized. So he must fix the things man has screwed up. Since Yahshua is king of this Earth he takes up the scroll with seven seals to do the bidding of his Father. Yahshua is the flesh of Yah. Why would he need flesh? Man loves tangible things, they appeal to his intellect. So he made himself a physical king as well as making us spiritual beings liken unto him. This is a very profound statement. Yahshua took his flesh from his mother, a woman of the tribe of Judah. Yah designated Judah as the tribe from which were to come kings. That is why the scriptures say he will set upon the throne of David. He is called the Lion of the tribe of Judah.

When he took the scroll, the twenty-four elders presented all of the prayers of all the saints from every dispensation to him. The seals were to be the response to their prayers. No prayer ever goes unanswered, but sometimes they may be delayed to fit into Yah’s plan of things.

The first of the seals sets the famed horsemen of the apocalypse out to do the bidding of the king. The first was war. War is nothing new. It has been around since the death of Able at the hands of his brother Cane. Sometimes Yah would command war upon a people to purge the land of them. Death and killing is the hallmark of the fallen nature. Though physical wars have happened after the cross and still does to this day it is only the byproduct of the war has been waging in the heart and mind of the fallen nature. I want to say here that if the scriptures are looked at through the degenerated carnal mind the picture look bleak indeed. However, it is not the natural world that the scriptures are talking about, but the life of the human creature, their Earth and heaven. In them are found both the Earth and the heavens. The Earth here is their flesh and the heavens their intellect. The Bible calls that “principalities and powers in high places”.

The second seal take peace from the souls of man, so men would kill each another. To him was given a large sword. In the scriptures a sword also speaks of the word of the Lord. “The word is like a two edged sword cutting asunder between the soul and spirit.” With this sword he was speaking very loud, thus the large sword.

Then comes famine. I have known for many years that there has been a famine in the land of the true word of Yah. His voice has virtually been silenced by the clamor of religious voices. That is why he called me out from among them and told me not to touch the unclean thing. It is only out here alone with him that you can hear what he has to say. One thing I would like you to notice is that there was no famine upon the oil and wine. The oil is representative of the anointing of the Holy Spirit and the wine is symbolic of the fruit of the Spirit in true believers. In other words his true anointed believers suffered no famine of spiritual things.

Death and Hades, or the grave, follows the famine. Death here is not physical, as in the sense that man recons death, but death to any spiritual substance. If the voice of Yah cannot penetrate and enlighten the minds of men their flesh is but a dead body. And, when this state of being is kept it leads to hades, the final resting place for them. Not necessarily the literal grave, but a rut and a rut is a grave with both ends kicked out, a morbid way of existence. This place I call hell, hell on Earth and the only kind of hell that man will suffer. A forth of mankind will suffer this fate. The grave is the ultimate end for them, unless they become born of the Spirit at some point and have resurrection life in them. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the incorruptible seed of Yah is spirit. This ends the apocalypse riders and we then begin to see the benefits of being born of Yah.

There are souls under the altar that sets before the throne and they are crying out unto the judge of the Earth. These are only souls, the soul being the seat of the intellect, reason, and emotions of man. These people are alive on Earth and bringing their petition before the king. They were given robes of righteousness and told to be patient. These were being slain for the word of the Lord in them every day.

Next came a great earthquake. Not the shaking of the physical Earth, but a quaking in the heart and soul of man. Their heaven being shakend, and everything they thought was reality came tumbling down, being rolled up like a scroll. Everything earthly they trusted in fell in the shaking of the Lord. Nothing real is found in this temporary state of being, but then they were given a New Heaven and a New Earth, because the former things had passed away.

There is a scripture that states that spiritual did not come first, but the natural and then afterword the spiritual. The things in the Old Testament was natural occurrences, but after the Messiyah came the spiritual. Now everything that happens in the natural is an expression of what has happened in New Heaven and New Earth. Heaven is the true reality and the earthly realm is but a shadow of it.

Yahsuah never set up a church order when he was on Earth. Man did that later feeling the Holy Spirit not capable of organizing things and keeping them in order. So a church system came into being after Yah’s followers in Jerusalem were infiltrated by religious men. These men took over and set things up after the order of the Sanhedrin. This evolved into the modern day church system, becoming man's church instead of Yah's. However, Yah still has a true church made up of his people.

Those that do not allow the removal of their heavens and Earth will be very distraught and cry for their mountains, the religious denominations, to hide them from the face of Yah and the wrath of the Lamb, for who can stand?

The four angels that set upon the four corners of the Earth withheld the winds of adversity about to be released to blow upon the Earth, the sea and trees until another angel placed the stamp of Yah, his seal, on the foreheads of those that belonged to him. This was their protection and the answer to the harlot religious system's mark of the beast. John was told the number of those sealed of each of the twelve tribes of Israel. Israel's children were Yah's chosen people in the Old Testament, but in the New Testament they are those born of the Spirit. It can be said that our flesh is of the tribe of Judah because Yah took his flesh from a woman of that tribe. However, the bloodline always flows through the males. Everything producing after its kind, as seen in scripture, so in reality we are of the tribe of Yah the Father and descendants of the New Creation man, a multitude that cannot be numbered. Never again will they hunger for he is the bread of life and never will they thirst for they will drink of the spring of living water that flows from the throne. The Lamb will be their shepherd and Yah will wipe away all the tears from their eyes.

When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in Heaven as if expecting him to speak further, and then seven angels were given the trumpets of warning and judgment. Then an angel came before that throne with a censer full of the prayers of the saints, and he was given much incense. Here, we see the Messiyah filling his role as high priest after the order of Melchizedec. He then filled the censer with fire from the altar and cast it onto the Earth. The result was thunder, lightening and another earthquake.

The Trumpets

In scripture, a trumpet brings instructions or warnings, usually telling the hearer what to do for those that have an ear to hear what the trumpet sound means. Unfortunately, in religion there are so many trumpets being blown at the same time that Yah's trumpet is drowned out and few hear and understand, and fewer still take heed to it. These judgments are primarily for the common man, not necessarily in religion. Religion was juggled under the seals, though they play a major part in what happens in the trumpet judgments.

As the first trumpet was blown hale and fire mixed with blood fell upon a third of the Earth, trees and all the green grass was burned up. Now let's not get carnal here. The trumpets are warnings signs, the firstfruit of things to come. At Pentecost, we received the firstfruit of Yah's Holy Spirit, a foretaste of our inheritance. The same is true here only in the sense of judgment.

Hail is water that has under gone a drastic change and has become hard. Many places in the scriptures water is spoken of as the word of Yah, as in "the washing of the water of the word." The purpose of it is to cleanse from all unrighteousness. Sometime it becomes hard and then it beats upon the mind with great force. A lot of times, when it comes in that form it is a painful experience, people either learn from it or are harmed by it. Sometimes, it is even ignored altogether, but never the less Yah has been faithful to speak.

If the hail is not heeded, then come the fire. Fire purges or refines, depending upon how it is received. Rejecting the refining fire turns into blood or carnal understanding, mainly because people do not understand the ways of Yah and it all seems so dumb. The problem is that religious men do not seek Yah to know for themselves what he is saying; other people just go on their merry way. In religion the understanding of things usually comes through the pulpit and brings a reliance on it for understanding. Man has become lulled to sleep or become too lazy to seek things out for themselves. Like the children of Israel of old in the wilderness they say, you tell us what Yah says and we will do it. To the others it finds no place in their hearts. A third of mankind will be burned up because they do not heed the warning of the trumpet.

The Second Trumpet

The trumpet sent a large burning mountain into the sea killing a third of the people. Mountains are high places, great and soaring ideas that take authority in the intellect. This mountain came from the throne and the burning is Yah's refining fire. The purpose is to purify and bring the dross to the surface to be skimmed away by the Holy Spirit in the hearts of the people or burn them up whichever they choose. Seas in the Bible are large masses of people, the sea of humanity. The sea turned to blood. Spiritual life was aborted in a lot of people, because of the perverted teachings of religion and the doctrines of men. They were perverted in the sense that people were drawn away from the living Yah and blinded to his ways dying to his influence. Another third of mankind goes down in this manner. Ships speak of church vessels or congregations. Again we see the masses of people turned to blood, their fallen nature dictating their conduct in life, therefore, losing their ability to become spiritual beings. At this point the soul becomes basically unaware of their state of death, becoming walking dead, alive to the world around them, but dead to spiritual things.

The Third Trumpet

A great star as a burning lamp fell upon a third part of the rivers and springs and the name of it was Wormwood. The word mean bitter and many men died from drinking it and stars are ministries or ministers.

This article came about because while I sat at my computer not long ago I heard an audible male voice say, Wormwood. That set me to seeking and Yah began to show me about this aspect of Revelations. I found the word several times in the Old Testament and each place it was condemning his people for not listening to his voice and going their own way. I will let you seek this out on your own. However, I remembered it was also in the New Testament in the book of Revelations. I found it in the third trumpet. Remember the number three means perfection and this was now the third time that I heard Yah's audible voice. It was too profound to ignore. Our Heavenly Father always does things in threes.

It says the star fell from heaven. At the first this could have come by revelation knowledge of the Spirit sent for the benefit of all people. These are elsewhere in scriptures called stars. Yah is always mindful of his creation, but eventually the carnal mind of man took it and made a religious doctrine out of it, thus polluting it with a carnal interpretation in the mind of religious man and shoving it out of the hearts of the people. After all any revelation must have some truth in it for it to be successful. They bring their revelations into churches and religious organizations gathering a following around it, leaving mankind to flounder in their ignorance.

Running throughout Christianity has been, for many years now, rivers and streams of religious and doctrinal teaching of Wormwood. They pollute and turn people bitter, thereby poisoning the hearts and minds against Yah spiritual truths. Religion has turned all the people who listen to them to blood, making them look at things through their religious fallen nature and carnal minds. This leaves the common man outside of Yah's influence. Upon a closer look at Revelation the Lord began to open up to me about the seals, the trumpets and the bowls.

From this point on as the trumpets are blown things began to accelerate and Yah is starting to do a quick work in righteousness to shorten the days lest there be no flesh left to save and for the very elect's sake.

The Fourth Trumpet

A third of the celestial bodies in man's heaven, thinking, were darkened. We saw in the fourth seal that the church fell from Heaven and became merely religious and carnal. The sun, moon and stars here represent the religious denominations. Church denominations are set up after the order of the Jewish Sanhedrin. First there is the General Headquarters, the seat of religious light or high priesthood, beneath them are the District Headquarters, moons or council of elders, and under them are the churches with their ministers and ministries. These are the stars. We are told that a third of them became darkened. Yahshua said of religion in his day, "If the light in you becomes dark, how great is that darkness." Now there is little hope for mankind as a whole because they are supposed to represent Yah to the world has lost his way. The true church is his people being the reflection of the son of Yah and is to give light to the darkened hearts and souls of the people of the Earth, for he is the light of life.

This dire situation brings three WOE's from the angel flying in the midst of Heaven, because of the trumpets yet to sound.

The Fifth Trumpet

This sounding caused a star to fall from Heaven and it has the keys to the abyss or bottomless pit. When he opened the pit, out came smoke and not only the religion was further darkened, but also the atmosphere where all men dwell. Now the whole world has been darkened by reason of the smoke that rose out of the bottomless pit of man's evil depraved soul. The worst thing about it was there were deceiving spirits that came from the smoke. These were given power to sting like scorpion, and they were not to harm anything living especially those that had the seal of Yah in their forehead. Why the forehead? That is the soul realm, the seat of intellect, reason and emotions. These tormenting spirits were only to hurt, but not kill, the dead heart and souls of the inhabitants of the Earth, flesh. Perhaps this would bring repentance and a turning to Yah.

These were awesome looking spirits and were described as warriors riding horses. They had a king over them and it was the angel, ministry that opens the abyss. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon and means "to Perish." In Greek his name is Apollyon, which means "Destruction." However, Yah in his mercy did not suffer them to die. Because of this torture they would seek death, but not find relief there. Their only source was seeking Yah, himself, but as in Yahshua's day religion has locked the doors so people who would go into the kingdom cannot and neither do they go in themselves. Two other WOE's are yet to come.

The Sixth Trumpet

The sixth angel was told to release the four angels that holding back the winds of adversity at the four corners of the Earth. They had been kept in ready for this precise time and they were to kill a third of mankind. The winds came as a mighty army of mounted troops. Remember Yah is dealing with the heart and souls of people with the trumpets. They killed with fire, smoke and sulfur. These come from the depraved pit of the human soul. They ride upon horses, and horses are beasts in the Bible that represent power and authority that carries the rider, in this case many riders, millions of them. To the secular world, this is government, but I see this as the denominations, because they kill with their mouth, that is their teaching. Their tails were like many serpents that bite. Serpent goes back to the Garden of Eden where the evil one that deceived Eve was called a serpent. So, here we see many deceiving serpents in the tail of this teaching. The common man falls prey to them because he is not in the place Yah wants him to be.

There is a sad indictment here against all men. Those that were not killed by these religious teachings still refused to repent of the works of their hands. These are human beings that still worshiped all the things they hold in their heart to take the place of Yah, and did not repent of their murders, stealing, practicing magic arts, and continuing to do immoral acts.

Now we see Yahshua, as a bright angel, coming out of Heaven and he places one foot on the sea and the other one on the land. He shouted with a loud voice and it echoed seven times like thunder from Heaven. John was not permitted to write the words. Then the angel raised his hand and vowed before Yah that there should be time no longer. For in the blowing of the seventh trumpet the mystery of Yah will be accomplished just as the prophets had announced.

That mystery has already been revealed and it is the truth about immortality and body salvation. The manifestation of the sons of Yah revealed to them. The following scriptures tell what happens to them once they have seen the mystery of Yah has been revealed to them. They are even now testifying of these truths and being slain in the isles of religion for their testimony. But like Yahshua, they will rise upon their feet the third day and be caught up into heaven.

This is not a happening seen on Earth, but it is nonetheless a true happening. Sons of Yah now walk the Earth and are persecuted for the truths in them. It is spiritual and hid from the eyes of most people. Only the sons themselves know whom they are and that very soon they will be caught up into Heaven.

At that same time will come the fall of religion as in a mighty earthquake and a tenth of the city of religion will collapse. Seven thousand will be killed in the collapse and those that survive the death of the religious harlot will repent and turn to Yah giving him glory.

One more WOE is to come.

The Seventh Trumpet

The sounding of this trumpet brought loud voices from Heaven crying out. “The kingdom of this world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiyah, and he will reign for ever and ever. The elders worshiped saying, “The time has come for judging the dead and for rewarding your servants the prophets, the saints and those who reverence your NAME, both small and great. A time for destroying those who destroyed the Earth.” The Temple in Heaven was open and the Ark of the Covenant was seen.

There are many things that are expanded on further in Revelations before the Bowls are poured out: The sign of the woman and the dragon, which describes the birth of the manchild or the sons of Yah. Next is the bestial system of denominations coming from the Earth, the seat of Satan. Then, the rise of the second beast that comes up out of the sea, people, and is called the false prophet who derives its power from the first beast or the denominations.

The Harvest of the Earth

One like the “son of man” was setting on a white cloud wearing a golden crown and had a sharp sickle in his hand. It was time to harvest the Earth and he did so when the command came out of the temple in Heaven. Yahshua said this would happen at the end of the age, world system. The first people to be harvested were the tares, people that had resembled him, but had no cornel, just empty husks. These are people who look righteous and holy, but have nothing inside. They are destined for the furnace.

And then another angel from the temple in Heaven came out and harvested the grapes. We find them outside the city. They had come out of religion, but needed their carnal ways and fallen nature pressed out of them. They went into the winepress of Yah’s wrath and the blood was pressed out of them. The blood is the life of the flesh. They were no longer mortal, for they had suffered with Yahshua outside the city. This is another mystery of Yah, not all will sleep in death, but they will all be changed, in a moment of time, in the twinkling of an eye. It was painful at times, but the pressure did the trick, mortal putting on immortality. We have been here for a very long time to us, outside the city of man’s religion, but only a moment in the scheme of things.

Shortly after, we heard his voice telling us to come out, I watched as the religious organizations evolved into the first beast in Revelation, becoming the seat of Satan and wrote many articles about it. Satan is the fallen enemy of Yah with his fallen nature and fleshly desires. The churches ceased to allow the Spirit a voice in their meetings and became the second beast called the false prophet. They virtually organized Yah right out of their midst closing the door between them, offending his Holy Spirit. So, Yahshua left them to their own devices, and his chosen people followed him. They follow the Lamb wherever he goes. He was taken outside the city and hung on a cross where he shed his pure sinless blood for us, so we followed him and went into the winepress to shed out blood. Our fleshly life ended there. We are told to reckon ourselves dead to sin, but alive to him. I call this the cross life. Though the harvest is complete, the crops are still in the field.

The next scene is of the Lord standing on Mt. Zion and the 144,000 with him. This is not an exact number for 144 is a gross and a gross differs in amount, but speaks of the whole amount. Here we see it multiplied many times. I would like to expound on this for a few minutes. It says the 144,000 are the redeemed of the Earth and their hearts sang a new song because they are pure and did not defile themselves with the Harlot Religious System. They are the firstfruit of the harvest and stand by the Lord of the whole Earth.

I have always wondered why the Lord had called my friend and me out of the religious system when he did, as there was yet some movement of the Spirit in it. Now, I understand what he was doing. He told us to come up hither, and we stand with him on Mt. Zion and behold the events taking place on the Earth from this viewpoint.

Come up hither in the son realm,
Where no dragon here abides,
For the sure WORD now has conquered,
And in him we have our life.

Those Who Overcome

Further on, I found that some overcame the beast and washed their garments in the blood of the Lamb and this was a great multitude. However, it took the fall of the Great Religious City, Babylon, in their eyes for them to see her for what she was. Now in the Bowls they will see her destruction, and be spared her judgment and the partaking of her sins and plagues, for they will not be in there when it comes. They have washed their soiled righteousness, robes, in the blood of the Lamb and made them white. They came from every kindred, nation and tongue, every denomination, sect and religious order. Then they too will understand the mercy of Father Yah and of the Lamb. They also will sing a new song and glorify Yah.

The rest of the Revelation down to the Bowls has been covered in other writings, so we will go over to the Bowls.

The Bowls

Seven angels came from the Tabernacle in Heaven where the Arc of the Covenant stands and were given seven bowls of Yah's wrath. They were told to go pour them out upon the Earth. These angels were dressed in bright linen priest robes with golden ties and the bowls were gold. Now comes the punishment. Now the flesh must pay for going its own way and worshiping the creature instead of the Creator. Now in reading the following keep in mind that these are spiritual happenings that may reflect themselves in the Earth realm.

The First Bowl

The people on the land that had the Mark of the Beast and worshiped his image broke out with ugly painful sores, spots of putrefaction in the inner man.

The Second Bowl

Next came the sea, masses of people, and they turned to blood. like that of a dead man and every living thing in the sea died. Any life still in the heart of man succumbs to the fallen nature in them. There were some holdout still in the masses that did not bow to the Beast, but neither did they bow to Yah. They were still carnal in thinking, true atheists, I wager, but they have to pay for their decision and cannot stand in their ignorance, for the Holy Spirit was still condemning their hearts. They knew they were in error, but did not want to accept it because then they would be held accountable for their lifestyle.

The Third Bowl

The third bowl went to the river and springs of water and they turned to blood. Rivers are carnal ideas and water is the teaching that spring up from their source in their deceived heart and reflected in actions and doing. They shed the blood of the saints slaying them with the tongue and making them carnal like them. Now Yah has given them blood to drink.

The Fourth Bowl

The sun became so hot that it scorched them with fire. This sun should be rendered son for it comes from Yah and who can stand in his presence, for our Yah is a consuming fire causing intense heat within them and they cursed the name of Yah who was the source of their pain. However, they refused to repent and glorify him.

The Fifth Bowl

Then Yah's wrath was poured out upon the throne of the beast and his kingdom was thrown into utter darkness. When in darkness people cannot see which way to go and his kingdom will fall into total confusion, thus the name Babylon the Great, mother of Harlots. The people gnashed their tongue in agony, cursing Yah because of their pain. Some pain is greater than physical pain. The pain in a person's heart that has suffered great loss brings groaning that is too deep to express outwardly. Physical pain cannot bring them to this level. Still they refused to repent of their religious doing.

The Sixth Bowl

The great dividing river between the west and the east was dried up making the way for the Kings of the east. Evil spirits from the mouth of the dragon, the beast and the false prophets performed miraculous signs and they reached out to all the King of the whole Earth to gather them for battle on the great day of Yah Almighty. I see the eastern religions even now making inroads in America. Soon Babylon in her will persuade them to join her, organize them, for she is the great organizer, to make war with the saints in a place called Armageddon, meaning “the place of troops”. Some say it is the pass through the Carmel Mountain range in the mid-east, but this is a carnal interpretation of this scripture because in Israel’s past it was the scene of many battles. I would like to remind you that it was on this mountain that Yahshua took his disciples and was transfigured before them. This was the area assigned to the tribe of Judah by Yah under Joshua after they settled in the Land of Promise. It simply implies that Yahshua himself will appear as a thief in the night, or darkness of religion.

The Seventh Bowl

This one is poured out into the air and a loud voice from Heaven announces, “Is is done!” Then came flashes of lightning, peals of thunder and a great earthquake, like no other earthquake before it. Can you just imagine what this is going to do to the forces of religion? Cities of religion collapsed. The great city Babylon was split in three parts as Yah remembered Babylon giving her a cup filled with the furry of his wrath. Every religious church fled away and the mountains of denominations could no longer be found. Huge hailstones fell from Heaven upon men and they cursed Yah because the plague of hailstones was so terrible. Now, we have seen that hail is the hard and forceful word of the Lord, but now it was so great and devastatingly huge, striking men in the head.

The punishment of the great prostitute, who sets upon many waters and the beast upon which she rides has been covered in other writings.

The world now has a new King and with his rule come the Kingdom of Heaven to Earth. This brings a New Heaven and New Earth. Read the last two chapters of Revelation and see the end of the matter.

May the Yah of Heaven give you ears to hear, eyes to see and sonship to walk in.
