

SAUL AND DAVID

Before we discuss Saul and David, there is one other person I would like to tell you about. Her name is Ruth, a Moabite. A man took his wife and two sons to Moab. There the man died there along with his two sons, who died having no children. After their death in a foreign country, the man's wife, Naomi, decided to go back to her own country. Both sons had married Moabite women and so she sent them back to their mother's house. But, Ruth, the wife of one of her sons, loved Naomi and refused to go and went with Naomi to her own country. When they got there Ruth met and married a man of Israel and became the great grandmother of David, King of Israel.

Naomi represents the Spirit of Yah married to religion and her two sons are the Fundamentals and Pentecostals. They went into a foreign country (denominations) and dwelled in Moab (carnalism). There they married and took wives outside the will of Yah. There, they died, spiritually, in that place and that lawfully freed Naomi (the Spirit) to leave that place. Yah is a lawful Deity and as long as there was life in the visible church the Spirit remained.

Naomi sent her two son's wives back to the organization, but Ruth refused to go and clung to (Naomi) the Spirit. So Naomi said, "Your sister-in-law has gone back to her people, the Fundamentals, now you go with her." Notice she did not say, to your people; she said, "You go with HER." There is a trend today among those who call themselves Yah's people. They are coming out of the Pentecostal movement and going back into Fundamentalism.

This is really not a strange thing when you consider the priests had to leave the Holy Place (Pentecostalism) in the Tabernacle and go into the courtyard (Fundamentalism) when the High Priest went behind the veil into the Holy of Holies. This was so they could not inadvertently look into the Most Holy Place (hidden things of Yah). You have to follow Yah and become anointed sons of Yah like YahShua before you qualify to enter that which is lawful only for the High Priest. The Pentecostal movement in recent years has lost most of its attraction and even their own services are looking more and more like those of the Fundamentalist.

However, the Bible says, Ruth clung to Naomi and would not leave her. Thank Yah he has a people who today are going with the Spirit out from the denominational organizations. Their confession is, "Where you go I will go, where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your Yah is my deity. May the Lord deal with me, be it ever so severely, if anything... separates you and me." In another place it says, "For who can separate us from the love of Messiyah, the anointing?"

So, Ruth went back to Israel with Naomi and there she gleaned in the fields of Boaz. He fell in love with Ruth and they married.

The sons of Yah went out of the organization with the Spirit and dwells in the realm of Yah's will and are in the field gleaning the truth of Yah and getting to know their Father Yah.

Saul and David

After Israel was delivered out of Egypt's bondage, they turned from Yah and made for themselves a golden calf to be their god like the nation they just came out from.

When Israel became a nation they rejected Yah being over them again, and demanded a King like the other Nations around them. So, Yah had Samuel, the prophet, to give them what they wanted. This was not Yah's perfect will, but he allowed it for the people's sake.

YahShua returned to the Father and gave the baptism of the Holy Spirit and believers grew in astounding numbers under the twelve Apostles. Like their forefathers who came out of Egypt, however, they began to reject Yah and build again the old ways of the law, mixing law and grace. So, Yah allowed Paul to give them the church structure. This was not what Yah intended, but he blessed it for the people's sake.

Yah told Samuel to tell the people the price they would pay for a King. He would take their sons and make them serve. Some would be commanders while others would plow his ground and reap his harvest. The daughters will do menial tasks and serve. He will take the best of your fields, vineyards and olive groves and give them to his attendance. He will also take a tenth of your wealth and you yourselves will become his slaves.

When the Church organized and set men over them, Yah's people suffered the same fate as the people of Israel who wanted a king. They took the young men and made them serve, some are put in positions in the services, while others work in the field, handing out literature and knocking on doors. They are sent out to recruit more members and sale books and tapes for the ministries. The daughters run the nurseries, cook for bake sales and serve as cleaners in the kingdom.

Carnal minded men use the best spiritual treasures to the benefit of the denomination and manipulating the five fold ministries and the Gifts of the Spirit. He, also, takes a tenth of your wages and you, yourselves, have become slaves to a man made form of worship and are lead by ministers and ministries instead of Yah.

The people refused to listen to Samuel and desired a king to rule over them like the other nations around them, so Yah told Samuel he would give them a Governor.
“There is a way that seems right unto a man.”

After the church had a strong foothold and began to be recognized, they evolved into religious tribes: Baptist; Methodist; Presbyterian; Pentecostals, etc. Then they organized and set over them a denomination (king).

Now this is the order of a Kingdom; first you have the king, then the king's advisers and lastly you have each providence with their rulers.

In the religious kingdoms you have; First the General Headquarters or Papal, under them the district headquarters or College of Cardinals and under them the churches with their priest or preachers.

Samuel anointed Saul, the Benjamite, King of Israel. Saul was of the tribe of Benjamin, a tribe of which Yah said nothing about kingship. The Benjamites were warriors. Kings were to come from the tribe of Judah. Saul was a humble man in the beginning, but his position and power brought out his true nature. As a warrior he was found not only fighting against his enemies, but against Yah. He just could not understand the ways of Yah. He went from hiding among the stuff to offering sacrifices. A duty only the prophets or priesthood are allowed to perform.

The Fundamentals and Pentecostals were once a true move of Yah and were humble before him, but they have now become organizations, run by powerful men. You know, when man takes the reigns of something it soon becomes corrupt and more of a form rather than what Yah intended.

I want you to notice what Yah said about Saul when he was talking to Samuel, “He will govern my people”. The people ask for a king, but Yah is going to give them a governor. Saul will be a king to the people, but only a governor in Yah's eyes. Saul had a real experience in Yah, however. The Bible says, “As Saul turned to leave, ... Yah changed Saul's heart...” He even prophesied with the prophets and was jeered at by those who knew him before. Shortly afterwards the Spirit of Yah came upon him and he was moved by it to defend the people and defeat the enemy.

Saul is a representation of the Denominational Religious System, better known as the BABYLON HARLOT RELIGIOUS SYSTEM.

While this was happening there was a boy, the youngest of eight sons of a man of Judah named Jesse. His name was David, which means “fully or rarely”, (Strong's Concordance) and while tending sheep in the field, he learned to play upon the harp and to use the sling.

Today there is a new creation man and their name is the sons of Yah. They are rare, because they choose to fully follow Yah, not man. While they worked for the Lord they learned the elementary principles of the word of Yah and their life was like sweet music on a harp.

After being King for some time, Saul was at war against the Philistines and sent for Samuel to come and offer sacrifice to Yah. Yah said for them to go destroy everything, men, women, children, animals and goods. So, Yah gave them the victory but Saul disobeyed and brought the leader back in chains for the people to see. Another time they were being over run by the Philistines and again Saul sent for Samuel to come and invoke Yah's blessing.

Samuel was delayed in his coming and Saul's men lost heart and begin to desert him, so Saul took it upon himself to act as a priest and offer the sacrifice. He was not qualified to do this and the sacrifice became an abomination. Yah was angered and turned his back on him for offering strange fire, sacrifice. It was not lawful for any but the appointed priests to serve at the alter or do a sacrifice. When Samuel arrived he rebuked him, and he repented before Samuel, but not in his heart.

The church began to turn their attention from the people and service of Yah to serving their own interest. Instead of building the Kingdom of Yah they begin to build their own little kingdoms. Sin was no longer destroyed, but allowed to remain in the hearts of the people without the slightest thought of disobeying Yah. Wrong was overlooked if it benefited the church and worst there was no true repentance in their hearts.

The Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul and an evil spirit tormented him. He would prophecy and throw things when it vexed him. So, at the advice of his councilors, he sent for David the son of Jesse and when he played upon the harp it soothed the evil spirit in Saul.

When the church ministry became a dead order and lost the anointing, they were quick to recognize the Spirit of Yah was heavy upon the sons of Yah. So, they let them served in the church organization and became ministers, teachers, song leader and such, to hide the evil, religious, spirit that has entered the religious realm and to soothe that religious spirit in people.

On several occasions Saul tried to kill David with a spear while prophesying under the power of the evil spirit. But, David would escape each time.

The sons of Yah could not stay in one church long before the authority would try to kill them. Once I was called into the pastors' office and told I could come and worship with them but I would have to leave my dogs at home. He was speaking of my beliefs, for I had been talking to hungry hearts in his church. I fled that place and went to another, but soon had to leave there also, for they did not want me sharing with their people what Yah was showing me. I was heart broken and spent much time in prayer.

Now Yah said to Samuel, “How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him as King over Israel?” Then he told him to go and make a sacrifice at Bethlehem and invite Jesse and his sons. “I have chosen one of his sons to be King.” So, Samuel did as Yah instructed and there at the sacrifice he anointed David king over his people in the sight of his seven brothers.

Seven is the number of completeness. There are seven Church Ages. David was the eighth son. Now, eight means, “new beginning”. Eight is the beginning of a new week, age or movement. The Church Age is completed (ended), finished and David represents the next move of Yah, the beginning of the Kingdom Age (SONSHIP).

Notice none of the seven brothers, church age, was anointed. Yah has rejected the present visible church system, the organization. There is a true church, but it is now not seen of men. The true church is Yah's people who are going on into the new move of Yah.

The anointing of the Lord now rests upon the sons of Yah. While they were young and still working in the field, they were anointed with the spirit of sonship and will soon rule with Messiah a thousand years and set upon thrones.

Here in the last dealings of Yah with man as His church, Yah has found some overcomers, sons of Yah. And, YahShua says to them, “To him that overcomes, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I have overcome and sit down with my Father on his throne.”

Even though David was in Saul's service he went back and forth between Saul and tending his father's sheep. While tending sheep he killed a lion and a bear to protect the sheep, so it was no big thing for him to face Goliath. His trust was in the Lord not the size of the opponent. With the simple weapon of a shepherd boy he felled the giant, and with Goliath's own sword cut off his head. After making quick work of the giant, David entered Saul's service and became one of his armor-bearers.

The sons of Yah like their counter part David lived victorious lives before the Lord and served in the church as well as ministered to the needs of Yah's people, Father's sheep. They became Spiritual warriors triumphant with what little word of Yah, weapons of our warfare, they knew. The Holy Spirit came upon them and they moved in spiritual gifts in meetings. They were quick to cut off the head, authority, of sin and iniquity with the “Sword of the Word”, and bring the doctrine of men down before them on every side.

Now Jonathan was Saul's oldest son, and heir to the throne. He was a mighty warrior in his own right and gave Israel a great victory over the Philistines. He and David became close friends while David served in the court of his father playing for Saul, but after he killed the giant, Jonathan became one in the spirit with David and he loved him as himself. David was made a high-ranking soldier in Saul's army and Yah gave him success in everything he did.

While the sons of Yah worked for Yah in the organization they made many friends and became one in the spirit with a lot of them. It was a time of immaturity and ignorance in which they were filled with wonderful exuberance for Yah and did exploits in his name. Yah winks at this period of youthful careless and carefree irresponsibility, much like we do our own children while they are discovering life. In the natural, we have to grow up and leave that behind, so also the spiritual.

Saul became jealous of David because of his popularity with the people and he saw that Yah was with David and no longer with him. He felt his throne was in danger, so he made up his mind to kill him.

The sons of Yah soon found their efforts to serve the Lord were not readily accepted by religious leaders. They did not like anyone moving by the Spirit without their approval or control. If they could not manipulate and control Yah's moving through them, they would quench the Spirit in them with their authority. Any attempt to help the people of Yah was overshadowed by the Harlot Religious Spirit, evil spirit, which had become authority in the organization through the denominations.

Jonathan saw that his father was going to kill David and he loved him very much. So Jonathan met David in the field and warned him. David would have to leave and with tears they embraced each other, but David wept the most. Jonathan and David swore friendship with each other in "the name of the Lord". At another time, "Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David along with his tunic, and even his sword..." In doing this he was in effect giving David the reigns of government. The robe and garments represents his kingship, the sword, his loyalty and power. He was virtually stripping himself of authority and handing his inheritance over to David. By Jonathan passing his birthright on to David, Yah was staying within the bounds of the law to make David king. Yah had everything worked out from the beginning.

While we were in our youth in the organization we made some close friends, those we loved as our own life. Then we heard the call of the Spirit to come out of the perverse religious order. "Come out of her, my people, so you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues". By virtue of their not coming out, the Jonathans of Saul's family are turning their birthright over to those who obey the Spirit.

Around the end of World War II Yah began to call the remnant, the Elect of Messiyah, anointed ones, out from among them. I was called out in nineteen seventy-three and I have talked to others who said they heard the call shortly after Israel became a nation. Many others have come out since, obeying the Spirit's call. Most are without understanding, feeling frustrated and guilty because they no longer enjoy going to church or just cannot find a comfortable place to go or fit in. This is primarily because the church system does not teach man Yah's ways and to seek Yah for themselves. They flounder in their misery and are left to reason with carnal minds, "Yah would not want me out of church. I know I must be sinning." ...Wrong!

If we do not obey the Spirit and come out, the Harlot Religious Spirit will kill us spiritually. It will not let us flow in the Spirit of Yah freely and it quenches or controls the Spirit in our lives until we are dead. A dead order can only minister death to its hearers. You do not have to do physical damage to someone to kill them. All you have to do is kill their influence and they are dead. A saying went around during the seventies, "God is dead". Well, this is true in the church system for they have killed Yah's influence.

David embraced Jonathan there in the field and then fled to Nob and to the Tabernacle, the place of Yah's presence. There he asked for bread for the men, but there was found only the holy bread of the priest. The priest asked, "Have your men kept themselves from women?" David assured the priest of their purity and that day David's men ate the holy bread. It was an unlawful thing for him to do, but Yah did not punish him, for as YahShua taught, "the law was made for man not man for the law."

Nob is where the Tabernacle of Yah was located after the destruction of Shiloh, for it had not been brought to Jerusalem as yet. Shiloh means secure or successful. (Strong's Concordance) Successful living for Yah in the security of the Spirit has been destroyed by the Religious System and the Tabernacle of Yah is now at Nob. Nob means "fruit". (Strong's Concordance) We came to where there is the fruit of the Spirit and the bread of life.

Do you hear the voice of the YahShua the high priest of our confession still asking today, "Have you kept yourself from women?" Do you go in to the Harlot Religious System and have intercourse with her ministries? She is a harlot and seduces the people of Yah with emotionalism and sensationalism, birthing religious ideology and theology instead of spiritual truths. She is the abomination of desolation, anti, "other than", Christ, "the anointing", which should actually be rendered "anti-Messiyah".

If you go in to her, you cannot eat of the holy bread, Word of Yah, less you defile it and make the blood of YahShua of non-effect. The bread represents revelation knowledge without which we will never grow in Yah. YahShua said it this way, "Unless you eat the flesh of the son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you". As David, you must come out of Saul's kingdom and go to YahShua, the Priest, and partake of the bread from heaven. Many will die because they do not see this truth.

Then David went and dwelt in the Cave of Adullam. That word means "justice of the people" and that was where David learned justice and mercy. It was here in the cave David's heart longed for Yah's promises and he penned most of his Psalms. It was here staring at the cold clay walls of that cave that Yah began the refining of character to make David Yah's man on the throne.

In this present wilderness our hearts groan for the promised manifestation of the sons of Yah. Not we only, but all creation groans in pain of childbirth right up to this present time. We are now being cleansed from all impurities (old wine of religion) in the fast that Yah has called. Fasting from man's ways (teachings and thinking), we are eating holy bread and learning Yah's ways. You don't see us, most do not even know about us, but we are here in the cave of humanity doing Yah's will.

John the Baptist come preaching out of the wilderness, and when YahShua was baptized the Spirit lead Him into the wilderness where He fasted forty days and nights. This is not an unusual thing Yah is doing. All great moves of Yah are preceded by a trip into the wilderness. Like Moses, David and most of the prophets. The apostle Paul also had his time on the backside of the desert.

Even while Saul was chasing David, the Spirit of Yah would come upon him and he would prophesy, (preach). Once while he was prophesying, he stripped himself of his robes before Samuel and prophesied all night long. The damnations have a word for you. You cannot buy (spiritual truth) or sale (what Yah has show you) unless you have our mark, (affiliation).

Because the Harlot represents Yah to the world and still reigns, sometimes the Spirit of Yah will come to a meeting and someone in it's own ranks will prophecy, (preach), for the Heavenly Father bringing the message of the hour as a testimony against that system of worship. They do not understand the message for they hear with carnal fleshly ears, but Yah is faithful to His people and they cannot say, "You never told me". You know they do not understand for the next time you see them they are just where they were before and have not acted upon the very word they themselves have preached.

David fled and Saul chased him all over the country. Then the Philistines began to gather against Israel again. Samuel had died and Saul knew that Yahweh would not answer him, for Yah had rejected him as King over Israel. He was in a straight to know what to do, so he went to the witch of Endor and had Samuel brought out of paradise to tell him what to do. Samuel said to Saul, "Why do you consult me, now that Yah has turned away from you and become your enemy?" Friendship with the world is hatred toward Yah.

There are those in the organization who have become so corrupt that witchcraft is in their services and, sad to say, the people are so far from Yah that they do not see what is happening. The 'spirit of rebellion' is as witchcraft. And Yah has said, "Do not suffer a witch to live". Familiar spirits are used in the place of discernment and a religious spirit instead of spirituality. They never teach anything that pertains to spiritual life, but only what is carnal, earthly or good for religious appearance, mainly their own. Only the wise in the Spirit of Yah can discern the difference. Pray that you may be able to discern.

My friend and I, who are anointed for the next move of Yah, were called to the hospital bedside of a seriously ill friend whom we both loved. Her children, some church friends, we all gathered around holding hands and prayed that Yah would raise her up. We were just a group of believers who loved this woman and wanted to see Yah move in her behalf. It was a sweet beautiful time and we were confident Yah had heard the sincere request of a body of believers.

Believers are those who believe YahShua is the Son of Yah and that He died on the cross for our sins and rose the third day, but they are not necessarily born again. Most, sad to say, are saved by faith, and "Faith is the substance of things HOPED FOR, the evidence of thing not seen, ...being sure of what we hope for..."(NIV Bible) Faith is accounted to us for righteousness under the Old Covenant but we have a New Covenant with a borne again experience. YahShua said, "I tell you the truth, no one can see the Kingdom of Yah unless he is born again". Faith only hold you up until you come into the EXPERIENCE of what is hoped for.

When we finished praying for our sick friend and stepped back from the bed one of her church friends who had been praying with us stepped forward. In the power of the religious ministering spirit of the Harlot Babylon System, she laid hands on her and began to rebuke the pain and cast out the infirmity. This was plainly unnecessary because we had already prayed, but the Saul spirit, Babylon Religious System, had to make herself known. By doing this she was in effect denouncing our simple prayers as believers. In essence she was saying, "I am in authority here and your prayers mean nothing". Beware of the ministering spirit for it will minister to you the spirit it possess, but it is not Yah's Spirit.

In the church today there is a big movement of laying on of hands. Laying on of hands for placing in a ministry, imparting gifts, healing, ministering and casting out demons. If a man lays hands on you and tells you all about your physical life and the natural things in it, that is a familiar spirit, not the Spirit of Yah. For now Yah is ministering to the inward man, not the outward. If you are seeking Yah and have revelation knowledge you need not that a man lay hands on you.

If you walk in the Spirit all the power you need for anything is already imparted to you upon receiving the Holy Spirit. "His divine power has given us everything that pertains to life and Yahliness".

It is not necessary for man to lay hands upon you. As a matter of fact it can be detrimental to you. If a religious spirit is moving that person, instead of the Spirit of Yah you receive a religious spirit with all its curses. All who say, Lord, Lord is not of Yah. What the church misunderstands is that the laying on of hands is a spiritual importation. If you submit to it you are opening yourself up to receive from the spirit in them whether it be good or bad. So be careful whom you let lay hands on you and know it does nothing for the physical.

To most in the hospital room it was perfectly natural for they do not discern or recognize the Harlot Religious System as a religious spirit. However, my friend and I looked at each other and knew whom it was ministering. At that time we could say nothing for the true spirit of the Harlot has been revealed only to the sons of Yah. Soon though, she will be unveiled for all eyes to see. Presently Saul is still on the throne even though the Spirit of Yah has departed from him and now rests on David, the sons of Yah. My friend in the hospital died several days later.

While David was in the cave, his family came to him and also all that was in distress or in debt or discontented and gathered around him and he became their leader.

Right now the sons of Yah are out here in wilderness, unlike David though, they cannot find many who have heard the call to come out of the Harlot System. Our arms are open to all that are hungry for Yah and not satisfied in the church system, those who are wondering aimlessly with no understanding of Yah's purpose. Soon, however, they will come, but first all that they trust in, ministries, ministers, religion, and the church, must be made empty to them.

YahShua went through the towns and villages preaching the “good news” of the Kingdom and healing every disease and sickness. When he saw the great crowds, he had compassion on them because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. YahShua's words ring as clearly now as in his day. The church world is not interested in the well being of its people, but in their money and service. It is as though they are sheep with no shepherd today. This condition prompted YahShua to action and he declared, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.” Then he sent out the disciples. Will Yah do less for this generation? It is now time for the Feast of Ingathering, the end time harvest.

YahShua gave a parable once about the end of the world (age). It is well known as the “Parable of the Wheat and the Tares (weeds).” The wheat are the sons of Yah and the weeds are the sons of the evil one (denominations) and the harvest is the end of the age. The weeds will be pulled up and all that they trust in and the very soil that gives them life will be shaken from them. Brother, this is humiliation. Then they will be subjected to the same refining fire they rejected in the beginning as they behold the righteous ones, sons of Yah, shining in their Father's glory in the Kingdom Age. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth as they see what they could have had but shunned for a few moments of glory in the Harlot Religious System.

The Feast of Trumpets is upon us and the trumpet (end time message) is sounding. “He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says unto the church, believers.” The beginning of the Feast of Tabernacles is under way and the Feast of Ingathering is beginning.

Already the early harvest is being gathered out of the field and awaits anxiously the end of the harvest. After the cave experience, David won a great victory over the Philistines and Saul heard about it and came after him. So, the Bible says he wandered from place to place.

Yah has led the sons of Yah through many places and experiences to bring them to maturity and make them into the image and likeness of His dear Son. Our old rebellious man must die out here in the wilderness, like the old rebellious generation of Israel long ago. It is a new creation man who will enter the Promise Land (Kingdom Age) and possess all of their possessions.

While David was in the desert strongholds of Ziph, Jonathan came to him and encouraged him in Yah. “Do not be afraid...” he said and reassured him that his father, Saul, would not lay a hand on him. “You will be king over Israel, and I will be second to you.” Then Saul's son Jonathan went home, but David remained in the desert. Why did Jonathan go back to his father's house even after he knew Yah was no longer with his father? He could have suffered rejection in the wilderness with David and be, as he said, part of the New Kingdom. Did he love his father more than Yah or was it his life in the limelight and his position? That love caused him to die with his father on the opposite side of what Yah was doing?

Now here is a sad thing, ever once in a while some of the brothers and sisters of our youth will come out where we are and visit. The very ones we laughed and praised the Lord with and even ministered with, sons and daughters of the denominations. They listen to our words, strengthened us in our desert experience, but they then turn and go back home to the organization they came from. Why? If they know Yah is with us, why do they feel such a commitment to the old order?

I want you to understand the powerful religious grasp the Harlot has upon the people. By information and misinformation the leaders seduce and control the people until they cannot see they are in error. Because they are complacent, have shallow soil, and too busy with life, thorns, to pursue spiritual things, they let the religious leaders of the organization lead them into carnal doctrine and error.

Most people have no clue as to the difference between carnal and spiritual, earthly things and heavenly things. Man is constantly pulling spiritual down to their carnal minded realm. We are supposed to be allowing the Spirit of Yah to pull us up into the realms of the spiritual. The carnal or natural is tangible and spoken of as things that can be acknowledged by the five sense: sight, sound, taste, smell, and touch. Spiritual things are intangible and known only by the Spirit that dwells inside. Religion is carnal rituals, formulas and laws. It is man's ways, not Yah's. The sons of Yah are learning Yah's ways and soon they will appear in his likeness.

In the time of YahShua, religious persons, leaders and elders refused to believe that Yah would send His Son. Well, get ready, for He is going to do it again. Yah will incarnate Himself in a people who are willing to follow Him and Him only. Can you not hear the ministry today saying, "Surely if Yah was going to bring in a new move of Yah it will come through us. We are the ones who are ordained and are to see that salvation comes to all. Do we not stand before him to minister? Do we not do miracles in his name and did he not give us the Holy Spirit? Then why would Yah go outside the ministry to reveal his change? These people could not be sons of Yah. They insult our intelligence, expecting us to believe that they are the sons of Yah. Blasphemous!"

The ministry loves the praise, prestige and the power it gives them over others. Those who cannot command in their own lives because of the bondage of Babylon find comfort and purpose in control of others. They have been dubbed into believing they are serving Yah when they in reality are only serving the system or themselves, but to admit this would be to loose all. You can hear them in the voice of their life saying, "I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing." But YahShua counters, "You do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked."

The end of Saul and his sons was at the hands of the Philistines who slain them on Mount Gilboa. The names of Saul's sons are Jonathan, Ishui and Malki-Shus. When Saul saw his defeat and was gravely wounded, he fell upon his own sword and died. Saul and his sons were beheaded and hung on the city walls in humiliation. Jonathan was truly his father's son. Valiant men from Jabesh Gilead came and took their bodies and buried them.

The sons of the denomination, Saul, are Jonathan, (Pentecostals), whose name in Hebrew means, “the gift of Yah”, Ishui, (Fundamentals), meaning, “to reassemble” and Malki-Shus, (Catholicism), meaning, “King of wealth”.

The meaning of Mount Gilboa is “fountain of ebullition”, happiness and merriment. While the church makes merry music and enjoys their emotional highs, on this mount is where they meet their destruction. It will also be a time of celebration when the sons of Yah see Saul brought to open shame. Saul will destroy his own self with the very sword, Word, which he teaches others that destroy their spiritual lives. He will be judged by his own words.

At that time the sons of Yah will take their place and possessions, experimentally walking in the end time move of Yah. Now we just see it and are in preparation for it, but then we will be revealed. Mankind will look upon the headless body of the church systems as they hang in humiliation on the city walls. We will, like the valiant men of Jabesh Gilead, go out and bury that old dead order and help people to begin to walk in their new creation nature.

Very soon now Yah will remember the Harlot Religious System and the judgment prophesied by John in the book of Revelation will bring her to an open end. If you stay in there you, too, will suffer humiliation and lose, your head, the authority and power you are so proud of just as that order will.

YahShua cries, “I counsel you to buy of me gold (Yahliness) refined in the fire (desert) so you can become rich; and white clothes (righteousness) to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness and salve (anointing) to put on your eyes (understanding) so you can see (revelation knowledge)”.

David had just defeated the Amalekites when a man from Saul's camp, with his clothes torn and with dust upon his head, came to bring David news of Saul's death. He fell to the ground to pay him honor, but David was more concerned about the people. This man was an Amalike; Amalike means “laborer” and a laborer is someone who works for a wage. The story he told of Saul's death conflicts with what was earlier stated. He probably thought by bringing David Saul's crown and arm band and telling the story that he had killed Saul himself would reap some reward, wage. After all it was by now well known that Saul sought David's life. And there could be great reward for bringing an end to David's enemy. However, David was a patriot and slew the man because he said he had put Saul to death.

Instead of rejoicing, David grieved over the death of Saul and Jonathan. It is my opinion it was more for Jonathan and the people of Israel.

Some who will get caught in the fall of the great Babylonian Religious System will come and find the sons of Yah. But they will not come to learn of Yah. They will come to make gain for themselves by being affiliated with the next move of Yah. There are always leeches in every movement. However, their own doing will soon destroy them. This is one movement that man cannot lay his hand to. It is the Kingdom of Yah and he will rule supreme and man will have no say in matters any longer. However, there are those who have a heart for Yah who will come to us weeping with true repentance. These will be the people of Yah through the Kingdom Age.

Unless the Lord changes my heart, I will rejoice with the fall of today's Saul. For David it was a human life and nothing to rejoice over, but for us it is a system of perverse worship, which hold the souls of man in its grasp and when it falls there will be a time of Jubilee.

Jubilee was celebrated every fifty years and those in bondage are freed, all debts were forgiven and all under penalty of death were pardoned. “The threshing floor will be filled with grain (word of Yah); the vats will overflow with new wine (Holy Spirit) and oil (anointing). I will repay you for the years, body salvation, the locusts have eaten.”

The next time we see David he has settled in Hebron, but it is a long struggle with the family of Saul until David is crowned King and there is peace in the land.

If you think the manifestation of the sons of Yah is the end of the matter, think again. It will only be the beginning. There will be a long struggle between Religion and spirituality.

Most Bible scholars today talk about the great battle of Armageddon. They think it is to be fought in the country of Israel. This is a religious interpretation, not a spiritual one. The true Armageddon is between the spirit of religion and the Spirit of Yah in people's lives, between the fleshly nature and the nature of the Yah. Blood will run as high as the bridle of a horse. The life of the flesh is in the blood. The flesh life will be poured out as man takes his inheritance and becomes spirit beings.

Notice that it says the winepress is outside the city, church walls. This can never happen in the church, so come on out and see what Yah is doing.

Yah's warriors will be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power. With the full armor of Yah, they will stand against the Harlot's schemes. We do not fight against flesh and blood, but against authorities, against the powers of this dark world, and against the spiritual forces in the heavenly realm. We will take Jerusalem, our inheritance, back from religious men and once again it will be filled with the Spirit and peace. Victory will be his, not ours, for we can do nothing except what our commander orders us in the Kingdom Age.

Then David remembered his covenant of love with Jonathan and sent for Jonathan's son Mephibosheth. Mephibosheth means “exterminating the idol”, (Bible Dictionary) also referred to as Merib-baal, meaning “contender against Baal”. Now, Mephibosheth was crippled in both feet and David brought him under his roof and he dwelt in David's house.

All of the land that belonged to Saul was restored to him. Furthermore, Mephibosheth, Jonathan's son ate at David's table like one of the Kings son.

After there is peace and the religious spirit is conquered, the sons of Yah will remember the love covenant with Jonathan, Religion's sons, and will bring his sons into the blessings of the sons of Yah, even everlasting life. The immortal sons of Yah will walk the earth with mortal man and all will partake of everlasting life. Death will have no more hold upon the sons of religion for they will as their name implies, exterminate the idol of religion in their lives and will eat, the word of Yah, at the Kings table.

Here is the sad part, they were saved by faith and not experience in Jonathan, (Pentecost), and are crippled in both feet so they cannot walk upright before Yah.

These impotent ones will be healed in the Kingdom Age, but they will not take part in immortal life, the YahShua kind of resurrection. They will have their part in everlasting life, the Lazarus type of resurrection, for they will be quickened in their MORTAL bodies. Death having been put under foot of the Son of Yah, the sons of Yah who walk in the fullness of the Spirit.

David took Jerusalem from the Philistines, uncircumcised, still with flesh, and made it his capital. The Ark of the Covenant was brought to Jerusalem with great celebration.

The sons of Yah will take Jerusalem (the city of Yah) back from carnal religion with the help of the men of Israel, Yah's people, for the time of he gentiles will be over. The presence and blessings of Yah will finally be brought to the lives of all men for Jerusalem is the resting-place of Yah.

So, David reigned in Israel and there never has been a natural King like him. That which David is a type and shadow of, will truly be fulfilled in the Kingdom Age for Yah's kings will reign with the King of Kings.

Prepare now to be a son of Yah, for who would settle for the son of Jonathan's blessing when they can have the blessing of the sons of Yah. There is not much time left to man, so seek Yah's will now and do not be caught in Babylon's fall.
