

SEEING

Through the glass darkly obscure it now appears as the veil is removed our vision clears

Through the window of time we see only what is at hand but in the New Age we shall truly understand

The greatest gift of all is to heed the Spirit's call to come up a little higher and be purged by the fire

Once again a child is born into a world of doubt and scorn the glory of His Father shown when the last trumpet is blown
