

THE SPIRIT

The ocean with it's emerald spray speaks to us of the Spirit's way Like the surf on a sandy beach the Spirit flows in relentless reach

He dwells within the heart of man moving like waves upon the sand He comes upon, and brings a gift signs and wonders, the heart to sift

He speaks comfort to our soul gives power to overcome each foe He reveals to us spiritual things and in the heart, a praise it brings

When His life changing work is done we're more in the image of Yah's Son He then retreats to His place within and awaits the time to come again
