

TRULY HEAVEN

I lift up my eyes and then I see the beauty of how it soon will be When all the sin and death are gone the world will sing a brand new song

The glory of Father Yah shall cover the earth, the sea, and sky forever Peace, love and joy will there abound immortality and life will then be found

No greater blessing has Yah above than to fill the earth with His love No greater honor can He bestow, than the sons of Yah His glory know

The price for it has all been paid the plans in heaven have been laid Rejoice and shout all earth below our Yah reigns, His love to show
